News Release

Hertford County Board of Education Appoints Angelia G. Adediran as HCPS Interim Chief Finance Officer

Winton, NC—Hertford County Public Schools (HCPS) is thrilled to announce the appointment of Angelia G. Adediran as the Interim Chief Finance Officer. With a distinguished career in executive roles within local and state government, Angelia brings invaluable experience to this new position. A Virginia native with roots in Roanoke Rapids, NC, Angelia earned her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a minor in Management from Virginia State University in Petersburg, VA, and a Master of Divinity with honors from Virginia Union University. Additionally, she is an alumna of the University of Virginia's 2007 Sorensen Institute for Political Leaders Program and a Certified Public Manager through Virginia Commonwealth University in partnership with the Virginia Department of Human Resources. Angelia has held several high-profile positions, including County Administrator in Virginia, Assistant City Manager of Finance and Administration in Florida, Budget Director for Chesapeake, VA, and Deputy Director Senior in Richmond, VA. Her extensive background in finance and administration has equipped her with the skills necessary to make a significant impact at HCPS.

Dr. Jesse J. Pratt, Superintendent of HCPS, expressed his excitement about Angelia joining the team, stating, "We know that with her expertise, she will bring a wealth of knowledge to HCPS." Hertford County Public Schools is confident that Angelia G. Adediran will provide outstanding leadership and ensure the district's continued financial health and growth.
