

James Towell, New Athletic Director for Hertford County High School

Mr. James Towell is the new Athletic Director at Hertford County High School. Mr. Towell brings a wealth of experience and dedication to his new role, having served the Hertford County Public School system for 26 years.

Mr. Towell is currently the Healthful Living teacher and Head Coach of the Hertford County High School Baseball and JV Boys' Basketball teams. His extensive background in education and athletics has been a cornerstone of his career. He graduated from Chowan College (now University) in 1997 with a Bachelor of Science in Health and Physical Education. Furthering his expertise, he earned a Master of Arts in Coaching and Athletic Administration from Concordia University-Irvine in 2019.

Dr. Jesse J. Pratt, Superintendent of Hertford County Public Schools, expressed his excitement about Mr. Towell's new position. He stated, "We are thrilled to have Mr. Towell take on the role of Athletic Director. His vast experience and dedication to our student-athletes make him an excellent choice. We are confident he will make a significant impact in this position."

Please join us in congratulating Mr. James Towell on his new role as Athletic Director. We look forward to his continued contributions to Hertford County High School.
