

Troy Garris Jr., New Athletic Director at Hertford County Middle School

Hertford County Middle School is excited to announce Mr. Troy Garris Jr. as the new Athletic Director. He is currently a PE teacher at Hertford County Middle School. Mr. Garris, a native of Roanoke Rapids, NC, brings a dynamic blend of experience, education, and passion for sports to this key leadership role.

With 11 years of experience in coaching, Mr. Garris has had the privilege of working with athletes of all ages, from youth leagues to collegiate-level athletes. His diverse coaching journey has broadened his perspective on athlete development and sports program management. Dr. Jesse J. Pratt, Superintendent of Hertford County Public Schools, expressed his enthusiasm for Mr. Garris' promotion. He stated, "We are extremely pleased to promote Mr. Garris to the position of Athletic Director. His extensive experience, dedication to student-athletes, and proven leadership abilities make him the perfect fit for this role. We look forward to his positive impact on our athletic programs."
